

Managing Director (m/f/d)

Successful as a team

With one location in Switzerland and one in Asia, our client has established itself as a strong partner for sophisticated packaging solutions within an internationally active group. The company offers comprehensive solutions, from conception and production to supporting customers in the use of the products. Innovation, the fulfilment of the highest standards with uncompromising quality and sustainability are the hallmarks of the company.

Your challenge: Together with your experienced management team, you will set the course and develop the company with a total of 90 employees in a targeted manner. You will develop the internal as well as external entrepreneurial potential and realise the ambitious sales and profit goals. In doing so, you will make skilful use of the group's opportunities and expand the existing network.

Your profile: As a leader with integrity, you stand for entrepreneurship, the will to succeed and commitment. You recognise opportunities and use your professionalism and excellent communication skills to continue to build trust with your multi-faceted internal and external contacts. You have completed technical or business training at college/university. French is your working language, English is the Group language, German language skills are an advantage.

What we offer: A unique challenge with responsibility for an SME embedded in a globally active, innovative group. You will work closely with a competent, committed team, making a decisive contribution to the future success of the company. You can expect a good, progressive remuneration model, including a company car, also for private use. Working location: Canton Neuchâtel (CH).
